Dear Deon Van Onselen

Thank you for using Total Compliance to complete and update your documentation for submission to the SA Human Rights Commission.

A copy of your documentation has been provisionally submitted to the SA Human Rights Commission on your behalf and a copy is attached to this email in PDF format.

Please take note of the following important information:

1) The SA Human Rights Commission requires a physical signed copy of your documentation. Please print out the attached PDF and sign on the appropriate markers. This copy should be mailed to the following address:

Private Bag X2700
Houghton
2041

We suggest sending the document by Registered Mail. This will give you proof of delivery, should you be required to provide such.

2) Update your website.

According to Section 51 of the Act, the document we provide you should be made available for download from your website. We suggest sending this document to your Web Developer for inclusion on your site.

If you do not have a website you do not need to worry.

3) Changes to Information

Please note that if any details on your documents change, they must be resubmitted with the appropriate changes to the SA Human Rights Commission.

We would be happy to assist you if you need.

Kind Regards,
Total Compliance.
